JOIN TODAY!

Since 1993, the Adams County Arts Council has evolved from a small grassroots group into a nonprofit arts organization with a steadily growing membership. Dedicated to the mission of cultivating an arts-rich community, the ACAC's primary goals are to provide high quality arts experiences to students of all ages and to support county arts organizations and artists. Each year, ACAC serves tens of thousands of residents and visitors with art programs that enrich our lives and lift our spirits. As a member, you support our mission and receive benefits such as discounts on arts classes at our Imagination Station learning center.

Agreement: Submission of work to the exhibition will constitute an agreement to comply with all rules, conditions and requirements listed on this form.

- All entries of original art must be the submitting artist's own original work, completed within the past three years.
- The ACAC reserves the right to reject any work.
- All works must be free standing or ready to hang with appropriate wire hanging hardware. Unframed works will not be accepted.
- Works must be labeled with title, date, price or NFS, and artist's name. Please factor framing costs into the retail price.
- No prints or copies of original works will be accepted. Computer prints will be considered original art only if accompanied by the artist's statement confirming same.
- Once an item has been entered and accepted it may not be withdrawn or the conditions of sale changed without the consent of the Art Exhibition Committee.
- Art sales do not include reproduction rights. The artist and buyer must negotiate separately.
- Artwork receiving request of purchase will be sold on a 'first-come first-served' basis.
- Any artwork purchased but not collected by the buyer will be retained by the ACAC, which will make every effort to contact the buyer. If ACAC is unable to complete the sale within 3 months, the art will be returned to the artist.
- ACAC, Gettysburg Festival and Schmucker Art Gallery reserve the right to photograph work for publicity and education purposes only. If you object to having your works used, with credit, by press reviewing the exhibition or by ACAC, Gettysburg Festival and Schmucker Art Gallery, please indicate this in writing and attach to your entry form.
