Health and General Rules:

1. All animals must be free of infectious and contagious diseases and a statement of this is required on the CVI.
2. A Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI), issued after May 1, is required.
3. Individual official animal identification is required. Official ID includes: a USDA ear tag with a US shield ; or a legible tattoo with herd and individual identification recognized is an approved USDA Scrapie database; or goats having a breed registration tattoo and accompanied by a registration certificate are exempt from the scrapie ID requirement if the tattoo is legible and a registration certificate listing the current owner (copy acceptable) accompany the animal at all times during transport from the premises of origin.
4. For a list of vaccination requirements for out-of-state animals call the Fair office.
5. Space is limited. Entries will be accepted on a first-come first-serve basis. In the event that space for all entries is not possible, each exhibitor may be limited to 6 head. Health papers need to accompany animals.
6. No equipment, feed, hay, bedding, etc. will be allowed to be stored in pens in the barns. These items must be kept in trailers.
7. Judges reserve the right to rearrange the classes according to number of entries.
8. All animals must remain on display until 10 p.m. on Saturday, the last day of the Fair.
9. No market animal may be dual entered as a breeding animal for any species.
10. No more than two goats per exhibitor per class will be accepted.
11. The Livestock Entry Form can be found at the back of this book or on the Premium Book page on the web site at www.southmountainfair.com and must be returned to the South Mountain Fair by July 14, no exceptions.
